

You live elsewhere to care for someone: Council Tax discount or exemption application form

Your property is exempt from Council Tax if it's empty because you've moved out to care for someone.

You must be better able to care for someone by living elsewhere than if you lived at the property you left empty.

Proof you need to send with this application form

Information that shows you've moved out. We need:

- copies of utility bills showing your accounts are closed (required)
- confirmation that the property is actively on the open sales or lettings market – this can be a link to the property listing (if applicable)
- a copy of a Deed of Surrender to show that their tenancy has ended (if applicable)

Information that supports why the person needs care and the level of care they need. For example:

- hospital discharge papers
- a letter from a doctor

If you're applying on behalf of the person who's moved out to provide care, we also need their permission to discuss their Council Tax account with you.

Warning: You must pay Council Tax while you wait for us to decide if you're eligible for a discount. If you do not pay, we'll start the Council Tax recovery process.
